ADMINISTRATIVE

ARCHIVES

Volunteers create & maintain St. Andrew's records, documents, or other materials of historical interest.

AUDIO-VISUAL & COMPUTER

"Techies" who advise on equipment purchases & assist with installation, trouble-shooting, repair.

OFFICE VOLUNTEERS

There are frequent opportunities to serve during the week by helping with bulletins and mailings, answering the phone, greeting visitors, or straightening and placing visitors' cards, pencils, hymnals, and prayer books in the pews. Office volunteers also may serve as volunteers for the Social Justice programs described under 'Social Justice / Outreach' above – handing out lunch bags, putting together bags of canned goods, etc.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Volunteers catalog, label, and shelve our growing collection of books and other media.

PUBLICATIONS / COMMUNICATIONS

- The Sea Net – Our parish newsletter, The Sea Net, is usually published monthly (except January and a combined Summer issue) and contains articles of parish news. It's also a creative outlet for the members of the parish: we encourage you to submit poems, prayers, reflections, articles, book reviews, artwork, stories, quotations, photos, etc., to be shared.
- Weekly Update – Our weekly notice of current and upcoming events distributed through email by the Parish Administrator. If you have a notice for a church or community event, send it to the parish office.
- www.standrewsbtssepiscopal.org – The parish website is maintained and updated by the Parish Administrator. Each week's email update is posted, and there is an archive of newsletters. The website is also a creative outlet for parish members.
- Photography – Volunteers always needed – and welcome! – to provide photos for all our publications and for special displays.
